

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. As the mother of 5 month old twins and a 4 year old, I know firsthand the disruption, inconvenience and annoyance that the telephone solicitors cause. PLEASE do not change anything that helps ensure quality family time.